The Bethlehem Fair Society will take all reasonable precautions for the safety of exhibits but will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. It will also not be responsible for any injuries to persons, animals, automobiles, or other property.

If the receipts should not be sufficient to pay the premiums in full, proportionate reductions will be made in all classes.

Anyone wishing to stay overnight to tend their animals must obtain an overnight badge from their department superintendent. All others must leave the fairgrounds at the conclusion of each day's activities or be subject to arrest for trespassing.

Any offensive language or behavior toward Fair officials, superintendents, head judges, committee members, or timekeepers before, during, or after the contest, or actions deemed to not be in the best interest of the Fair will disqualify the contestant and any premiums due will be forfeited. This may also result in disbarment of participation in future events.

During competitive exhibits, any exhibitor found to be under the influence of alcohol or drugs will be immediately disqualified from the event that he or she has entered. The superintendent of each committee will ensure that this regulation is enforced.

GENERAL STATUTES OF CONNECTICUT, SECTION 22-125

NOTE: Interference or harassment by an exhibitor of a State Livestock Inspector while the inspector is carrying out prescribed duties will result in the forfeiture of premium monies and/or expulsion from the fairgrounds.

PETS

No pets are allowed on the grounds, in the parking lots, or in vehicles on Bethlehem Fair property.
